Christian World View and Philosophy
815050	Against All Opposition: Defending the Christian Worldview Greg L. Bahnsen	370	28.70
	Based on lectures the master apologist Greg Bahnsen gave to students in 1991, this book clearly and simply shows how to defend the Christian faith. We must present Christianity not as merely the most reliable position to hold among the competing options available. Rather, the Christian faith is the only reasonable outlook available to men. 254 pages.
516241	Christianity – A Total World and Life System Abraham Kuyper	320	16.40
	A compilation of the 1898 Stone lectures by the nineteenth century Dutch Theologian. An application of the faith to various areas of life. 140 pages.
998308	The Death of Meaning R J Rushdoony	300	28.30
	In this volume, Rushdoony clearly enunciates each major philosopher's position and its implications, identifies the intellectual and moral consequences of each school of thought, and traces the dead-end to which each naturally leads. There is only one Foundation – Jesus Christ.
998254	Foundations of Christian Scholarship: Essays in the Van Til Perspective Edited by Gary North	525	30.35
	The eight different authors explain how the Bible judges both the framework and the content of each academic discipline. 355 pages. HC
576911	How Should We Then Live? Francis Schaeffer	430	33.00
	Classic book on the rise and decline of western thought and culture set in a framework of art. 358 pages.
051010	Infallibility: an Inescapable Concept R J Rushdoony	150	2.95
	A significant book on the concept of infallibility. In a world where relativity holds so many bound, infallibility is so important for God's people to understand. 69 pages.
998292	Intellectual Schizophrenia R J Rushdoony	280	31.15
	Rushdoony identifies the basic contradiction that pervades a secular society that rejects God's sovereignty but still needs law and order, justice, science and meaning to life. Secular man wants to use the things of creation while denying their Creator. Thus modern man is schizophrenic.
063003	Is the World Running Down? Crisis in World View Gary North	740	11.35
	Challenges the modern idea of entropy – the idea that the world is running down – with the response of Scripture, highlighted by the overcoming of entropy through the resurrection of Jesus. Asks hard questions of some creationists who stake their claims on the law of entropy. 400 pages. HC
064106	The Return of the Village Atheist Joel McDurmon	180	12.40
	McDurmon's apologetic work is written in response to Sam Harris's Letter to a Christian Nation , which calls for the end of faith and religion. This book tackles popular atheism, the realm of the 'village atheist'. 128 pages.
063006	Revolt Against Maturity R J Rushdoony	680	28.30
	Study of the biblical doctrine of psychology. Portrays psychology as a branch of theology dealing with man as a fallen creature marked by a revolt against maturity. 334 pages. HC
998384	To Be As God R J Rushdoony	420	33.00
	Subtitled 'A Study of Modern Thought Since the Marquis de Sade', Rushdoony considered this one of his more important works. It traces the course of 'enlightened' man's attempts to defy God by priding himself on intellectual achievement. 253 pages.
462536	Unholy Spirits Gary North	850	14.60
	Shows how the theory of an autonomous man is always accompanied by a rise in occultism. 426 pages.
998674	Van Til and the Limits of Reason R J Rushdoony	170	15.70
	The Enlightenment brought reason to replace revelation. The Christian must see faith in God's revelation as opening up an understanding, as thinking God's thoughts after Him and rationalism as a restriction of thought to the narrow confines of human understanding. These seven essays explore the Van Til perspective that puts God first and centre of all of life. 84 pages.
998315	The Word of Flux: Modern Man & the Problem of Knowledge R J Rushdoony	240	24.00
	Exposes the fantasy upheld by most of the modern world that reality is (or will become) a part of man and subject to his imagination. 137 pages.

<h2>Bible Commentary and Reference</h2>
998339	Chariots of Prophetic Fire (Studies in Elijah & Elisha) R J Rushdoony	460	37.95
	Rushdoony challenges the church of our day to resist compromise and the temptation to expediency and realise that the power today does not lie in politics or governments but in God's men of faith.
<h3>Commentaries on the Pentateuch</h3>
R J Rushdoony
051212	Volume 1: Genesis R J Rushdoony	680	76.15
	Theology without six-day creationism becomes alien to the God of Scripture because it turns from the God who acts and whose word is the creative word and the word of power, to a belief in process as god. The god of non-creationists is the creation of man and a figment of their imagination. HC
051213	Volume 2: Exodus R J Rushdoony	1080	76.15
	This thorough examination of the historic path of Israel through the exodus points us to the deliverance that came with the new exodus of Christ's resurrection. HC
051160	Volume 3: Leviticus R J Rushdoony	900	76.15
	This commentary shows how the purpose of Leviticus is to demonstrate the legal foundation of holiness in the totality of our lives, and to equip the church for its redemptive mission. HC
998452	Volume 4: Numbers R J Rushdoony	870	76.15
	The book of Numbers reveals God's dealings with two generations – judging the 'Pharaoh's slaves' older generation and training and encouraging the 'God's army' younger one. This commentary illustrates how the Lord desires a people who will embrace their responsibilities. HC
998506	Volume 5: Deuteronomy R J Rushdoony	1050	76.15
	This defining volume in the series addresses God's demands upon man, family, church and state. Rushdoony uses the book of Deuteronomy to summarise the central tenets of a truly Biblical worldview and shows how this last book of Moses is central to a gospel of victory in time and eternity. HC
051209	The Gospel of John R J Rushdoony	700	32.85
	Rushdoony's commentary on the Gospel of John takes the reader from parallels in Genesis through to the glorious conclusion of Christ's death and resurrection. 309 pages. HC

051016	Moses and Pharaoh Gary North	675	17.55
	The first part of North's economic commentary on Exodus, provides a detailed study of the conflict between Moses and Pharaoh – a conflict between dominion and power. 448 pages.
051028	Romans and Galatians R J Rushdoony	920	37.70
	Rushdoony's recently published and excellent commentary on Romans and Galatians. Highly recommended. 446 pages. HC

717137	CRI Guilty of Psychoheresy Martin & Deidre Bobgan	240	14.70
